Award winning HS Trustees wins new clients to become fastest growing Trustee firm

Safe Computing become latest Trustee appointment

HS Trustees are delighted to announce their appointment as a Co-Trustee of the Safe Computing Pension Fund (the 'Scheme'). HS Trustees are represented by Palwinder Hare on this appointment.

Palwinder said: "I'm delighted to represent HS Trustees on this Trustee appointment and look forward to working closely with the other Trustee, the Sponsor and the Scheme's advisers to support strong governance and positive outcomes for members."

HS Trustees: The fastest growing Trustee firm

The recent appointment to Safe Computing takes total number of HS Trustees' appointments to double figures, marking a five-fold increase since Bobby Riddaway took on the role of Managing Director in July 2024. The Trustee team has also expanded now comprising six experienced Trustees. – a threefold increase over the same period. With further new clients in the pipeline, HS Trustees' growth rate is set to increase further.

Market Recognition and Industry Accolades

Bobby Riddaway commented "Our growth continues at pace. The market is recognising HS Trustees as a source of experienced, pragmatic Trustees who partner with advisors, member and employers. We were privileged to be win the 2026 Pensions Age Award for our work in driving innovation and thought leadership. This follows on from being awarded a highly commended award at the Pinnacle Awards in November. I want to thank our clients, advisers and our trusted partners in supporting our continued growth."
