

PRESS RELEASE

HS Trustees appoints new Managing Director

24th September 2024

HS Trustees is delighted to announce the appointment of Bobby Riddaway as Managing Director with immediate effect. Since arriving at HS Trustees, Bobby has relaunched HS Trustees into the marketplace to work with schemes in a practical and proportionate way by providing fully Accredited Professional Trustees (APPT) as either Co-trustees as part of a Trustee board (including Chair of Trustees), or by providing a Professional Corporate Sole Trustee (PCST). He has also continued his work to find practical ESG solutions for all Schemes and initiated HS Trustees membership of Pensions for Purpose.

Steve Goddard, Chief Executive of HS Trustees, said 'Bobby brings a wealth of experience to HS Trustees and we are delighted to have him onboard. He is well respected and is making waves in the ESG space to improve practices and governance for both independent trustee and PCST opportunities'

Bobby commented 'I am delighted to join to build a fully independent Trustee firm that will work in partnership with Schemes, sponsors and advisors to achieve the best outcomes for members. I am also grateful for the backing that HS has given me to continue to work with the industry to improve outcomes for the world in general and continue the fight against climate change.'

Bobby has over 30 years' experience in pensions and investments. He is currently Chair of Trustees on the DB Scheme of a London based firm of Lawyers. He is a regular speaker on DB, DC and ESG/ Stewardship issues and is looking to assist both the industry and his Pension Schemes develop in these areas. He is also currently an asset owner member of the AIMSE Europe council and past Chair of the ACA Investment Committee.
